

Myths of Bold Leadership:

Bold leadership is reserved for bold people

Bold leadership is reserved for fearless people

Bold leadership requires a specific gift or talent

Bold leadership is for the ultra-smart or the ultra resourced

Bold leadership is something you are born with

Late in the afternoon the twelve disciples came to him and said, "Send the crowds away to the nearby villages and farms, so they can find food and lodging for the night. There is nothing to eat here in this remote place." But Jesus said, "You feed them." "But we have only five loaves of bread and two fish," they answered. "Or are you expecting us to go and buy enough food for this whole crowd?" For there were about 5,000 men there. Jesus replied, "Tell them to sit down in groups of about fifty each." So the people all sat down. Jesus took the five loaves and two fish, looked up toward heaven, and blessed them. Then, breaking the loaves into pieces, he kept giving the bread and fish to the disciples so they could distribute it to the people. They all ate as much as they wanted, and afterward, the disciples picked up twelve baskets of leftovers! (Luke 9:12-17 NLT)

Reflection Questions

06.07.15 – Bold: Opt In (Bold Leadership)

The following discussion starters are designed for use within groups meeting throughout the week. If you're not in a group, please pick up a group list from the Information Table after service!

- What stood out to you about this weekend's message? Why?
- Was there anything that challenged you? Explain.
- Based on your answers to the above questions, what do you think God may be saying to you? Discuss.
- What would it look like in your day-to-day life to respond to what God is saying?
- What plan can you put into action this week so that what God's saying to you sticks?
- How can your group or close friends best help you do what you're setting out to do this week? If you're in a group, be prepared at your next meeting to share how you're doing in following through on what's been discussed.

**After the message we invite you to take communion with us – this is an opportunity to remember Christ's death and resurrection as stated in 1 Corinthians 11:23-26. Instructions for taking communion are located at the tables near each exit. We also invite you to receive prayer during this part of our service. Leaders available to pray with you can be identified by their lanyards and will be standing in the auditorium at the lower exit to your right.
