

Make It Count

Purpose

The Net Church

Clark Campbell

December 11th, 2016Three huge questions we'll all face:

1. Can I know for sure what God wants me to be doing with my life?
2. Can my life really count? (or count for God)
3. Can we, as a community of Christ followers, make our words and deeds count for God?

Going forward:

What are your passions/giftings?

What is your purpose?

What will I prioritize in 2017?

Scripture References: Colossians 3:15-17; 2 Corinthians 4:5-7; Psalm 90:12

Unless otherwise noted, all scriptures are taken from the New Living Translation.

Make It Count

Purpose

The Net Church

Clark Campbell

December 11th, 2016Three huge questions we'll all face:

1. Can I know for sure what God wants me to be doing with my life?
2. Can my life really count? (or count for God)
3. Can we, as a community of Christ followers, make our words and deeds count for God?

Going forward:

What are your passions/giftings?

What is your purpose?

What will I prioritize in 2017?

Scripture References: Colossians 3:15-17; 2 Corinthians 4:5-7; Psalm 90:12

Unless otherwise noted, all scriptures are taken from the New Living Translation.

Reflection Questions

12.11.16 – Make It Count: Purpose

The following questions are designed for use personally or within a group setting to help you dig deeper into today's message. If you're not connected with a group, please visit: www.netchurch.cc/netgroups to see what groups are currently meeting.

- What stood out to you about this weekend's message? Why?
- Was there anything that challenged you? Explain.
- Based on your answers to the above questions, what do you think God may be saying to you? Discuss.
- What would it look like in your day-to-day life to respond to what God is saying?
- What plan can you put into action this week so that what God's saying to you sticks?
- How can your group or close friends best help you do what you're setting out to do this week? If you're in a group, be prepared at your next meeting to share how you're doing in following through on what's been discussed.

*After the message we invite you to take communion with us – this is an opportunity to remember Christ's death and resurrection as stated in 1 Corinthians 11:23-26. Instructions for taking communion are located at the tables near each exit. We also invite you to receive prayer during this part of our service. Leaders available to pray with you can be identified by their lanyards and will be standing in the auditorium at the lower exit to your right.

Reflection Questions

12.11.16 – Make It Count: Purpose

The following questions are designed for use personally or within a group setting to help you dig deeper into today's message. If you're not connected with a group, please visit: www.netchurch.cc/netgroups to see what groups are currently meeting.

- What stood out to you about this weekend's message? Why?
- Was there anything that challenged you? Explain.
- Based on your answers to the above questions, what do you think God may be saying to you? Discuss.
- What would it look like in your day-to-day life to respond to what God is saying?
- What plan can you put into action this week so that what God's saying to you sticks?
- How can your group or close friends best help you do what you're setting out to do this week? If you're in a group, be prepared at your next meeting to share how you're doing in following through on what's been discussed.

*After the message we invite you to take communion with us – this is an opportunity to remember Christ's death and resurrection as stated in 1 Corinthians 11:23-26. Instructions for taking communion are located at the tables near each exit. We also invite you to receive prayer during this part of our service. Leaders available to pray with you can be identified by their lanyards and will be standing in the auditorium at the lower exit to your right.