_____ you will have.

Matthew 14:22-31 – Immediately he made the disciples get into the boat and go before him to the other side, while he dismissed the crowds.²³ And after he had dismissed the crowds, he went up on the mountain by himself to pray. When evening came, he was there alone,²⁴ but the boat by this time was a long way from the land, beaten by the waves, for the wind was against them.²⁵ And in the fourth watch of the night he came to them, walking on the sea.²⁶ But when the disciples saw him walking on the sea, they were terrified, and said, "It is a ghost!" and they cried out in fear.²⁷ But immediately Jesus spoke to them, saying, "Take heart; it is I. Do not be afraid."²⁸ And Peter answered him, "Lord, if it is you, command me to come to you on the water."²⁹ He said, "Come." So Peter got out of the boat and walked on the water and came to Jesus.³⁰ But when he saw the wind, he was afraid, and beginning to sink he cried out, "Lord, save me."³¹ Jesus immediately reached out his hand and took hold of him, saying to him, "O you of little faith, why did you doubt?" - What stood out to you about this weekend's message? Why?
- Was there anything that challenged you? Explain.
- Based on your answers to the above questions, what do you think God may be saying to you? Discuss.
- What would it look like in your day-to-day life to respond to what God is saying?
- What plan can you put into action this week so that what God's saying to you sticks?
- How can your group or close friends best help you do what you're setting out to do this week? If you're in a group, be prepared at your next meeting to share how you're doing in following through on what's been discussed.

*After the message we invite you to take communion with us – Stations are located near each exit. This is a tradition long practiced by followers of Jesus (see 1 Corinthians 11:23-26). At The Net we take communion by dipping bread (representing Christ's body) into a bowl of juice (representing Christ's blood) and eating it. This practice is called intinction. We also invite you to receive prayer during this part of our service. Leaders available to pray with you can be identified by their lanyards and will be standing in the auditorium at the lower exit to your right.
