
Ryan May

December 17th, 2017

All of life is an Advent.

So, I will never arrive in this life.

But, I am _____

Genesis 1:31 – Then God looked over all he had made, and he saw that it was very good!

Genesis 2:16-17 – But the Lord God warned him, “You may freely eat the fruit of every tree in the garden—except the tree of the knowledge of good and evil. If you eat its fruit, you are sure to die.”

Other references: Genesis 1:28; 2:4-6; 3:1-6; 3:16-17; 3:23; 4:1; 4:25; Matthew 5:21-22, 27-28

Ryan May

December 17th, 2017

All of life is an Advent.

So, I will never arrive in this life.

But, I am _____

Genesis 1:31 – Then God looked over all he had made, and he saw that it was very good!

Genesis 2:16-17 – But the Lord God warned him, “You may freely eat the fruit of every tree in the garden—except the tree of the knowledge of good and evil. If you eat its fruit, you are sure to die.”

Other references: Genesis 1:28; 2:4-6; 3:1-6; 3:16-17; 3:23; 4:1; 4:25; Matthew 5:21-22, 27-28

Reflection Questions

12.17.17 – The Star: Part Three

The following questions are designed for use personally or within a group setting to help you dig deeper into today's message. If you're not connected with a group, please visit: www.netchurch.cc/netgroups to see what groups are currently meeting.

- What stood out to you about this weekend's message? Why?
- Was there anything that challenged you? Explain.
- Based on your answers to the above questions, what do you think God may be saying to you? Discuss.
- What would it look like in your day-to-day life to respond to what God is saying?
- What plan can you put into action this week so that what God's saying to you sticks?
- How can your group or close friends best help you do what you're setting out to do this week? If you're in a group, be prepared at your next meeting to share how you're doing in following through on what's been discussed.

*After the message we invite you to take communion with us – Stations are located near each exit. This is a tradition long practiced by followers of Jesus (see 1 Corinthians 11:23-26). At The Net we take communion by dipping bread (representing Christ's body) into a bowl of juice (representing Christ's blood) and eating it. This practice is called intinction. We also invite you to receive prayer during this part of our service. Leaders available to pray with you can be identified by their lanyards and will be standing in the auditorium at the lower exit to your left.

Reflection Questions

12.17.17 – The Star: Part Three

The following questions are designed for use personally or within a group setting to help you dig deeper into today's message. If you're not connected with a group, please visit: www.netchurch.cc/netgroups to see what groups are currently meeting.

- What stood out to you about this weekend's message? Why?
- Was there anything that challenged you? Explain.
- Based on your answers to the above questions, what do you think God may be saying to you? Discuss.
- What would it look like in your day-to-day life to respond to what God is saying?
- What plan can you put into action this week so that what God's saying to you sticks?
- How can your group or close friends best help you do what you're setting out to do this week? If you're in a group, be prepared at your next meeting to share how you're doing in following through on what's been discussed.

*After the message we invite you to take communion with us – Stations are located near each exit. This is a tradition long practiced by followers of Jesus (see 1 Corinthians 11:23-26). At The Net we take communion by dipping bread (representing Christ's body) into a bowl of juice (representing Christ's blood) and eating it. This practice is called intinction. We also invite you to receive prayer during this part of our service. Leaders available to pray with you can be identified by their lanyards and will be standing in the auditorium at the lower exit to your left.