

Philippians 4:4-7 – ⁴Always be full of joy in the Lord. I say it again—rejoice! ⁵Let everyone see that you are considerate in all you do. Remember, the Lord is coming soon. ⁶Don't worry about anything; instead, pray about everything. Tell God what you need, and thank him for all he has done. ⁷Then you will experience God's peace, which exceeds anything we can understand. His peace will guard your hearts and minds as you live in Christ Jesus.

Net Group Discussion Points

11.23.14 – Listen: Replenish your Soul

The following discussion starters are designed for use within groups meeting throughout the week. If you're not in a group, please pick up a group list from the Information Table after service!

- What stood out to you about this weekend's message? Why?
- Was there anything that challenged you? Explain.
- Based on your answers to the above questions, what do you think God may be saying to you? Discuss.
- What would it look like in your day-to-day life to respond do what God is saying?
- What plan can you put into action this week so that what God's saying to you sticks?
- How can your group or close friends best help you do what you're setting out to do this week? If you're in a group, be prepared at your next meeting to share how you're doing in following through on what's been discussed.

*After the message we invite you to take communion with us – this is an opportunity to remember Christ's death and resurrection as stated in 1 Corinthians 11:23-26. Instructions for taking communion are located at the tables near each exit. We also invite you to receive prayer during this part of our service. Leaders available to pray with you, can be identified by their lanyards, and will be standing in the auditorium at the lower exit to the right of the stage (same side as cross).
